Dragonfly at Hotel Zaza

"Fine Dining"

Located at Hotel Zaza, Dragonfly is one of the city's finest restaurants. Chef Dan Landsberg is known for his culinary skills and this restaurant has won the People's Choice Award 2003. Its drinks menu is as innovative as the global dinner menu, which features dishes like Ginger-Glazed Beef Tenderloin and Lamb Chop Lollipops. Head to the Urban Oasis terrace after dinner and enjoy the Dallas skyline while sipping on some Cognac.

Nick & Sam's

"Four-Star Steak & Seafood House"

This upscale steakhouse in Dallas is known for its savory menu of classic American fare, steak, lobster and, famously, complimentary caviar. The impressive wine list boasts over 450 varieties for you to sip on while enjoying the soothing ambient sounds of the resident grand piano. After enjoying your prime-aged rib eye or filet mignon, you can finish off the evening with an artisan cheese plate, espresso, or a signature chocolate molten soufflé.

Cafe Pacific

"Splendid Seafood in Highland Park"

A classic steak and seafood house with beautiful architecture, Cafe Pacific looks like it should be in Boston. Located in historic Highland Park Village, you'll find elegant dining in a picturesque, upscale shopping village. It's a splendid place for special occasions or business dinners. Lobster is a specialty here, but so are a variety of steak dishes. Daily seafood specials are always a worthwhile detour from the norm.
