Buzzbrews Kitchen

"24-Hour Urban Diner"

This 24-hour diner is a hidden gem located just off Central Expressway. Buzzbrews' bottomless coffee and inventive menu keeps this small restaurant packed. The interior gives off a funky vibe with a retro counter and pop-art covered walls. Breakfast is served around-the-clock with items like banana nut pancakes and the Hare Krishna – an egg-white omelet with avocados, cheese and cilantro. Lunch and dinner fare is also available, much of it with a south-of-the-border flare. Vegetarian options are abundant and free Wifi access is available.

Bubba's

"Best Home Cooked Food"

Bring your Mom here so she can replicate some of the incredible, home-cooked dishes served here daily! If you come here more than once, you'll notice more regulars than at any other place in Dallas. Specialties include the Chicken Fried Steak ("smothered steak" to those who didn't grow up in the South!) and the excellent, tender Pot Roast. Hot, flaky biscuits are served with most meals and the chocolate cream pie is among the finest ever made.
