Double Wide

"Get High on Entertainment"

It's fun to hang out at the Double Wide bar. That's because even if you're considered a nerd, just chilling at this place can make you feel cool. The rugs, motor parts, flags, wood paneling, TV screens, and unusual wall hangings will let you know that this is no ordinary bar. Treat yourself and your friends to some drinks at this joint in Deep Ellum. Take your autograph book along, since you're bound to meet some cool bands playing alternative rock, country, and pop at this place. Double Wide also features fantastic DJs from time to time.

Grapevine Bar

"Living Room Ambiance Nightclub"

This is one nightclub unlike any other. If you like dancing in your living room, you will love the ambiance at the Grapevine. Furnished with comfy chairs, couches, and a jukebox, this hot spot is nothing if not homey. You can also shoot pool on one of the indoor or outdoor pool tables while enjoying one of the bar's special frozen Everclear bellinis. The rooftop patio is the perfect place to watch the Oak Lawn party-goers as they bounce from club to club.

Milo Butterfinger's

"Hotspot For College Crowd"

Right down the street from Southern Methodist University, Milo's is a hot spot for the college crowd. You'll find billiards and darts in the back, if you can get through the shoulder-to-shoulder crowd surrounding the bar. Amidst the neon glow and year-round Christmas lights, you'll find televisions to catch your favorite sporting event. If you're lucky enough to get a seat at one of the booths, enjoy an appetizer from the limited, but well-chosen menu. Other selections include typical American favorites such as burgers, nachos and chicken fingers. Although the specialty is a large assortment of beer, the bar does have some wine and liquor choices.
