The Church

"A Unique Nightspot"

Located in a historic building that's said to be haunted, The Church is a unique and fun club in Dallas! With various lounges and DJs you'll hear everything from Electronic to Industrial music. Get out on the dance floor, or just relax and have a drink with friends. Make sure to head up to the rooftop patio to enjoy a stunning view of the city. This fun nightclub also hosts great events, including live concerts and theme parties. Definitely get your best goth gear on, since everyone else will be doing the same!

Dada Dallas

"One Of Deep Ellum's Oldest Clubs"

Dada Dallas is the best club for entertainment and live concerts. On any given night, the crowd may include Dead Heads, Beatles fans celebrating a 'Hard Night's Day', or the mic will be open for new bands, comics or poets. There are two indoor stages, one outdoor stage and a large landscaped patio. Recently, the club has featured Internet band broadcasts, which are live on stage as their songs waft out over the Internet simultaneously.

Station 4

"Gay Dance Club"

Station 4 (or S4) is one of the hottest gay dance clubs in Dallas. The dance floor is huge, with large dance cages, a balcony overlooking the action, and lots of disco lights. House music blasts from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. (alcohol is served until 2 a.m.). There are nightly drink specials, and admission also gets you into the drag shows upstairs in the Rose Room.
