I Heart Denver Store

"Love what Denver loves"

With the vision to boost local artists and designers, the I Heart Denver Store, makes available the best in art and crafts, souvenirs, knick knacks and one of a kind finds. It is the ideal store to spark interest in a new hobby or trend, pick up a gift for a special someone or even push a childhood business dream. Items for purchase include quirky additions and printed tees for your wardrobes, artwork prints and furniture for home and office, stationary supplies for weddings and parties and other weird and wonderful ideas such as unicorn wine stoppers, wooden light fixtures and customized notebooks. And what binds the makers of all these, is love for their home city of Denver. A truly fascinating, creative initiative.

The Truffle

"Rooting Around at The Truffle"

The Truffle is one of many Denver cheese stores enjoying the local spotlight, and probably one of the best as well. Located a short distance from the Cherry Creek Mall, the Truffle is easy to find but just out-of-the-way enough that it is rarely crowded and visitors can enjoy one-on-one attention and help from the knowledgeable staff. The Truffle is an old-fashioned cheese store; you will find nothing else there, but the amount of cheese is surprising and more than enough to take up an afternoon! Tastings are available, as is advice on food and drink to pair with the different cheeses, information on their production and discovery, and much, much more! Pick up a wheel of brie or whatever tickles your fancy and enjoy some amazing cheese!
