Fairmont Château Laurier

"Classic Comfort"

For sheer history and elegance you can't beat the Fairmont Château Laurier. This landmark Gothic-style hotel, located in the shadow of the Parliament Buildings, is within walking distance of the Canal Rideau and the Byward Market. It first opened in 1912; since then, it has played host to heads of state and has served as the setting for two movies. Each room is impeccable, with in-room pay-per-view movies, air conditioning and a choice of views upon request.

Swiss Hotel

"A Touch of Switzerland"

A charming hotel that offers excellent accommodation facilities in the Downtown neighborhood, Swiss Hotel brings a little bit of Switzerland to Ottawa. Their exquisitely furnished rooms and suites have beautiful decor and top class Swiss linens and organic toiletries, making for a comfortable stay. Located in a building that dates back to 1872, the locally owned and operated hotel lies in close proximity to the Shaw Centre, National Arts Centre, Sandy Hill Arena, and the Strathcona Park. Get your favorite poison and head to the hotel's Mediterranean Garden Terrace to enjoy a fine drink as you soak in the magnificent views of the city. Their on-site restaurant serves delicious Swiss fare.
