Burrito Gringo

"Burrito Delights"

For a delicious Mexican homemade burrito experience, head to Burrito Gringo. This burrito eatery has carved a niche for itself among the locals with their slow-cooked, made from scratch dishes which don't feature any additives or preservatives. The absence of a microwave and freezer bears testimony to this restaurant's passion for classic home-style cooking. So much so, they bake their own desserts. Choose your filling from meat, chicken and vegetarian for your burrito, quesadilla, tacos, nachos, salad bowl and burrito bowl. There is whole wheat and plain flour option as well. Relish these delicious Mexican street food fare with family and friends in tow. Don't forget to try their churros and chocolate coconut cookies.

The Butchery/Veras Burger Express

"Burgers & Steaks"

This is unlike your ordinary butcher shop. Opened in 1980, The Butchery/Veras Burger Express is a great place for meat lovers. This huge meat market with various sections for their meat displays not only sells quality meat cuts but also serves food. The rustic chandeliers, black and white tiles and wooden accents of this establishment, give it a welcoming look. Enjoy quality burgers from their on-site Veras Burger Express or for a more meaty platter from the butcher, you can try their dinner specials from Wednesdays to Saturdays.
