Eve Nightclub

"New York Inspired Nightclub"

Eve Nightclub, a 1920s-inspired club, is a great over-21 party destination in Ottawa. The decor in the club follows a distinct New York art deco influence while the comfy booths give an intimate feel to the place despite the heavy beats of the DJ. A great place to celebrate a bachelor party or 21st birthday, the place offers VIP bottle service on premium drinks ranging from Grey Goose Vodka to Dom Perignon. Along with private parties and regular DJ nights, the place is also host to its own lively parties for special events like New Years.

Green Room

"Eco-Friendly Nightclub"

Located in the iconic ByWard Market, the Green Room offers you a refreshing and lively space to party the night away. Just as the name suggests, the nightclub has gone green and its one of the only carbon neutral clubs in the entire city. The space, with its open-brick walls, cozy booths, mood lighting and minimal decor, is brought to life through the weekend with DJs spinning catchy beats, people flocking to the dance floor or sitting along the long wood bar sipping on expertly mixed drinks. All in all, this is a great place to come and party with friends.

Remic Rapids

"Artwork on the River"

Remic Rapids is a small but beautiful public park-area located along the Ottawa River waterfront. Overlooking the river's Remic Rapids, this is an excellent spot to drop by to enjoy a picnic at one of the benches by the water, and then unwind on the grass with a book, as you listen to the soothing sound of the river gurgling in the background. This park is immensely popular for local artist John Ceprano's Inukshuk sculpture garden, that is located here. Stop here for a breath of fresh air and a walk in the park, and to take a look at the array of small perfectly balanced rock sculptures that resemble human beings.

Valleyview Little Animal Farm

"Fresh off the Fun Farm!"

Located a little away from the main city, the Valleyview Little Animal Farm promises tiny tots and their parents a fun-filled day. Watch your kids squeal with delight as they go along the area petting new-born animals such as chicks, baby rabbits, and lambs. One can even watch animals such as llamas and alpacas grazing around in their spacious enclosures. Get your kids some feed from the feeding station and revel in the joy on their faces as you watch the animals eat out of their tiny hands. There is also a farm museum on-site, which features old train wagons, steam engines, and farming instruments, evoking awe in both children and their parents. A train ride takes you through sunflower fields and passes budding crops of soya, hay, and corn. Additionally, there is also a playground, a puppet theater, and a café on the premises.

Cumberland Heritage Village Museum

"Experience Vintage Village Life"

Depicting Ottawa's rural life from the 1920s and 1930s, Cumberland Heritage Village Museum is spread over 100 acres (40.46 hectares) of land. Home to a traditional general store, a working blacksmith shop, a carpentry and even a pump factory, the museum allows you to walk down history and see how life was before all the technological changes turned the world around. The village also has numerous, well-thought, authentic touches. For example, the display of antique vehicles in the village garage, items in the grocery store sold with vintage packaging and livestock displays during the summer make you forget you aren't actually living in the early 20th century. Don't hesitate to bring along your children to this vintage world. There are lots of exhibits and activities for the children as well. Wagon rides, model steam trains and animal visits are thoroughly enjoyed by kids of all ages. The museum also has an old-school canteen serving up a variety of refreshments. If you want to spend quality time with your family, or learn a bit more about the local history and culture, head to Cumberland Heritage Village Museum and get ready to walk back in time.

Goulbourn Museum

"Fascinating Hands-On Exhibitions"

Showcasing the history of the oldest military settlement and early life in Goulbourn, the Goulbourn Museum is a must-visit for anyone who wants to learn more about the local history and culture of the city. The museum houses three permanent exhibitions as well as a temporary exhibition space that features a rotating collection of historical artifacts. 100th Regiment of Foot is dedicated to the soldiers who lived in the township. Goulbourn Township Pioneers is devoted to early living in the village, its pioneers and the community. The third permanent exhibit is The Village Store. Designed exclusively for children, the store allows them dress-up in period clothing and shop the traditional way by employing the barter system. The museum also has a number of interactive displays, hands-on exhibits and regularly hosts Family Craft Days where children dress according to a pre-set theme, and participate in numerous games and activities. If you want to take your kids for a fun day out or simply learn about the local history and culture, head to Goulbourn Museum and immerse yourself in the stories it has to tell. Note that although entry to the museum is free, donations are encouraged.
