The White Monkey

"Salvaged Retro Home Decor"

The White Monkey is a unique store that stands out among regular antique stores in the area. The passionate owner Jim Robinson, offers up a wide selection of vintage items that have either been donated, purchased from auction, estates or other store, and with a lot of tender loving care, he salvages them and makes them look as good as new again. Specializing in retro home decor, this is the store where you can pick up that lamp, coffee-table or centerpiece that your home has been missing!

HighJinx

"Unspoiled Retro Goods"

HighJinx is an antique store and community charity help center located in Centretown, that has an exciting and eclectic array of retro items, local artwork and old knick-knacks. A funky barber's chair from the 1960s, an embalming table from the early 1900s, a complete picnic set with the original bottles of alcohol still in place and a set of sunny-yellow vinyl chairs, are just some of the exciting things you will find here. This store offers up goods that have all been donated by the public and uses the profits to help their neighbors and those in need in the community. So drop by to check out this quirky store or to simply lend a helping hand.
