Vertigo Records

"Best On The Record"

Located in the Byward Market neighborhood, Vertigo Records is a record store with a variety of more than 15,000 LP's, as well as a selection of a little more than 7000 CD's and DVD's available. If you think that this store is of no use to you as you do not own a turn table, do not worry as you can buy one here as well! Not only do they sell records but they also purchase from patrons as well. If you are looking for a particular record, feel free to ask them for it, as they will be happy to custom order it for you. Drop in and pick up your favorite LP to listen to it in the original unspoiled sound quality.

HighJinx

"Unspoiled Retro Goods"

HighJinx is an antique store and community charity help center located in Centretown, that has an exciting and eclectic array of retro items, local artwork and old knick-knacks. A funky barber's chair from the 1960s, an embalming table from the early 1900s, a complete picnic set with the original bottles of alcohol still in place and a set of sunny-yellow vinyl chairs, are just some of the exciting things you will find here. This store offers up goods that have all been donated by the public and uses the profits to help their neighbors and those in need in the community. So drop by to check out this quirky store or to simply lend a helping hand.
