C'est La Vie Consignment Boutique

"Vintage Secondhand Clothing"

Giving off an old vintage charm, the C'est La Vie Consignment Boutique is small consignment store that offers a variety of secondhand clothing at affordable prices. Whether it is party wear or regular casuals, you will find it here. The best part about this place is the availability of retro and vintage style of clothing. You won't find many high end brands here but you are sure to find whatever it is that you are looking for to complete that retro wardrobe of yours. Hats, jewelry, sunglasses, shoes and other accessories can also be found here.

Red Cat Records

"I Can Haz New & Used Music"

Record lovers rejoice! This humble neighborhood shop stocks both new and used CDs and vinyl, specializing in rarities and local stuff like the masterful "Rock is Hard" by Vancouver's own Rodney Graham. In addition to the compelling music selection, Red Cat also plays host to gallery openings by local artists and in-store concert performances by local acts and even international superstars such as the Black Lips. Perhaps most important, the staff is eminently helpful, and gracious as can be. Check website for event announcements, ticket sales, online shopping, and adorable photos of Buddy, their cat.
