Granville Island

"Tourist Hot Spot"

Brimming with a delightful vibrancy, Granville Island is a veritable haven of shopping, entertainment and culture located only a few minutes away from Downtown Vancouver. At the crack of dawn, water taxis can be seen ferrying across False Creek, bearing local wares and fruit crates ready to be sold at the Public Market. The Island's colour, warmth and jubilant personality are fed by each of the 300 businesses and vendors that inhabit its charming stretch. Whether it is the assortment of handicrafts, Aboriginal Art and locally curated souvenirs sold at its homegrown shops and galleries or the pull of culture on display at its performing arts venues, Granville Island saves something for everyone. Notable among its many landmarks is the Emily Carr University of Art and Design, the Vancouver Theatresports League and the Granville Island Brewing Company.

Granville Island Public Market

"One-Stop Public Market"

This massive public market has everything the quintessential village market-goer craves. It stimulates the senses with vibrant crowds, fragrances of fresh flowers and spices, and colorful fresh produce. Enjoy the vegetable and seafood selection at their farmers market shops like Granville Island Produce, Longliner Seafood or Four Season Farms. Indulge in the multicultural flavor at Duso's Italian Food, South China Seas Trading, or Roger's Chocolates. If you're hungry, stop at one of the many small eateries.

The Quay Market & Food Hall

"Shops, Boutiques & Restaurants"

Where the SeaBus trip from Downtown ends, one will see this expansive Lonsdale Quay Market & Shops begins. Bring your camera and climb the sea-view observation tower for an unobstructed shot of the city. The harbor market has three levels of shops, boutiques, and restaurants. The ground level houses more than 60 fresh market vendors selling a variety of goods from flowers, fruits, and vegetables, to sweets, soups and sauces. Specialty stores occupy the second level, carrying everything from home decor to fashion for adults and children. The third level features Lonsdale Quay Hotel.
