Christini's Ristorante Italiano

"Mangiare Mi Amici"

Suit up while coming to Christini's as the who's who of tinsel town are lured to dine along. While the attire demands a code the stomach definitely doesn't. The house special Costata D'Agnello is the pick of the bunch amongst the entrées. If the classic pasta is what you crave, the Fettuccine Alla Christini is every bit as good. When at a top drawer Italian restaurant, one can't go wrong with the tiramisu which acts the perfect dessert. The Ricotta Cheesecake is bound to make you lick your fingers. With a selection of over 450 wines to accompany your courses, a realization of being as spoilt for choice as the A-list sinks in. Don't be surprised if the likes of Tiger Woods and Michael Douglas are dining at the table besides you.
