Lo-Lo's Chicken & Waffles

"Soul Food Fulfillment"

When in the city, visit Lo-Lo's Chicken & Waffles run by the grandson of the Phoenix soul food legend Mrs. Elizabeth White. This place is always packed with hungry locals craving some old-fashioned soul food, complete with all the trimmings of collard greens to mashed potatoes. It has even been visited by celebrities like Shaquille O'Neal, Amare Stoudemire and many more. The boisterous and unpretentious setting is made up of several small rooms still laid out as part of the original house, all packed with tables full of diners. The waffles are light and fluffy, and the chicken is fried to perfection! After your main plate is cleared away and if you still have room, be sure to try the red velvet cake along with some sweet tea.

La Grande Orange Grocery & Pizzeria

"All In One"

Located in Phoenix's Arcadia neighborhood, La Grande Orange more affectionately known as LGO is a spot where you can get high-quality organic pastas, cheeses and wines. The adjacent LGO Pizzeria provides light bites such as sandwiches, salads, burgers and pizza alongside beverages and cocktails. The food is delicious and the service great, probably why it is often difficult to find parking near the shop. Grab an excellent breakfast at the La Grande Orange and do your grocery shopping on your way out.

Cuban Foods Bakery & Restaurant

"Taste of Cuba"

For a taste of the Caribbean, there are few places better in the Phoenix Metro area than Cuban Foods Bakery & Restaurant. Of course the first thing most people think of when they think of Cuban food is the Cubano sandwich, and they make a mean one. However, they also serve up dishes like the classic ropa vieja, tostones and papas rellenas. And of course, as this place is a bakery as well, don't miss out on the sweets and pastries made right in house.
