The Arrogant Butcher

"Downtown Dining Destination"

Located at CityScape, downtown Phoenix's entertainment hub, The Arrogant Butcher boasts an ultra-hip vibe and a contemporary American kitchen led by Chef Andrew Ashmore. A popular spot on the social scene, this restaurant is best if looking to catch the day's game, host a private party, celebrate with happy-hour specials, indulge in romantic conversations or rub shoulders with state politicians. There's never a dull moment even when it comes to the menu which covers appetizers of zucchini fritters, mains of jambalaya and sweet potato tortellini and dessert that includes salted caramel pudding and warm peanut butter cup. The minimalistic interiors with plush sofas, portraits on the wall and mood-enhancing lighting adds to the upscale, 1960s feel of the place.

Bar Bianco

"Pizzeria Bianco's Bar"

Originally created to pacify patrons waiting for their table at Pizzeria Bianco next door, Bar Bianco is now a hit by itself. It features a full bar, excellent wine list and a selection of light bites to tease your appetite. Intimate seating and candle lit ambiance lets you get comfortable while you watch people on the front porch waiting for names to be called. Even if you aren't waiting for pizza, Bar Bianco is a great spot for a beer or cocktail.

Churn

"Handmade Icecreams"

Ice cream aficionados laud the variety of ice-cream here at Churn. Each flavor is carefully prepared and each detail is supervised at every step. Churn also has pastries and serves coffee which merit attention in their own right, however, the splendid concoctions of ice-cream are why people come here. During the hot summer, Churn has people coming in all day and the line may be long. If it is, you can grab something more savory next door at Windsor and wait until dessert or just wait patiently in line, either way you won't regret it.
