

"Best Unique Venues in Phoenix"

Created By:: Cityseeker

 3 Locations Bookmarked

 by "Pierre Bamin on Unsplash" on Unsplash

Arizona Latino Arts & Cultural Center

"Celebrating Latin Culture"

This arts and cultural center is dedicated to promoting awareness and understanding of the Latino culture in Arizona. The center features everything from art exhibits about issues important to the Latino community to presenting food fairs and traditional celebrations. The gift shop stocks many items from Latin America that make great gifts and souvenirs.

 +1 602 254 9817

 info@alazcaz.org

 147 East Adams Street, Phoenix AZ

 by "Alan Cleaver"

The Icehouse

"Avant-Garde Cool"

Although it started as an icehouse, in 1990, this historic building was transformed into what has become one of the most happening cultural centers in the city of Phoenix. Focusing on avant-garde art with a social twist, this establishment plays host to many cultural events like marimba performances and art shows. The Icehouse also has various spaces, like the Silver Room and the Urbane Recycler, that can be rented for private events.

 +1 602 257 8929

 theicehouseaz.com/

 icemachine2011@gmail.com

 429 West Jackson Street, Phoenix AZ

 by Tony the Marine (talk)

Wrigley Mansion

"Gum Magnate's Manse"

William Wrigley Junior's dream mansion, the Wrigley Mansion is elegance personified. This magnificent 1932 mansion has hand-carved doors and a hand-painted rotunda ceiling which are a treat to the eyes. Apart from being an architectural marvel, the mansion also serves as a perfect location for anything from a dream wedding to an elegant event. Geordie's Restaurant within the mansion serves classic American fare and is the best place to host a classy sit-down dinner.

 +1 602 955 4079

 wrigleymansion.com/

 2501 East Telawa Trail, Phoenix AZ

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com