CityScape

"Great Scope for Entertainment"

CityScape, located in Downtown Phoenix, is an urban project that provides plenty of entertainment. From great restaurants like Blue Hound Kitchen and Fuego to a bowling alley and retail shops, CityScape encompasses everything an urban center should have, this includes a mixture of dining, shopping, business and nightlife. The Arrogant Butcher and The Breakfast Club are two other restaurants which merit attention and it is a good place to catch a show in the open space, from movies to live bands, this place has it all.

Biltmore Fashion Park

"Premier Shopping Experience"

A world-class shopping experience in Arizona can be found at this mall near the Biltmore Resort. Setting this facility aside from the mundane, is the exquisite garden, which is useful as well as beautiful. The cobbled streets speckled with the green expanse makes this place a visual delight. Renowned names such as Neiman Marcus and Sak's Fifth Avenue are cornerstones of this center. Fine eating establishments include Christopher's Fermier Brasserie and the Cheesecake Factory. Do check website for detailed directory.

Historic Downtown Glendale

"Great Antique Shopping"

A destination for the savvy shopper with more than 90 antique and specialty shops as well as restaurants. USA Today named downtown Glendale as one of the top ten antique destinations. Hop on the town trolley as it loops through the area. On the third Thursday of each month, businesses stay open late for Glendale Gaslight Thursdays. The Catlin Court Shops District consists of bungalows listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Murphy Park features an open-air market every Saturday October through May. Business hours, access and credit card acceptance will vary by merchant.
