CityScope

"Great Scope for Entertainment"

CityScope, located in Downtown Phoenix, is an urban project that provides plenty of entertainment. From great restaurants like Blue Hound Kitchen and Fuego to a bowling alley and retail shops, CityScope encompasses everything an urban center should have, this includes a mixture of dining, shopping, business and nightlife. The Arrogant Butcher and The Breakfast Club are two other restaurants which merit attention and it is a good place to catch a show in the open space, from movies to live bands, this place has it all.

Biltmore Fashion Park

"Premier Shopping Experience"

A world-class shopping experience in Arizona can be found at this mall near the Biltmore Resort. Setting this facility aside from the mundane, is the exquisite garden, which is useful as well as beautiful. The cobbled streets speckled with the green expanse makes this place a visual delight. Renowned names such as Neiman Marcus and Sak's Fifth Avenue are cornerstones of this center. Fine eating establishments include Christopher's Fermier Brasserie and the Cheesecake Factory. Do check website for detailed directory.

Arrowhead Towne Center Mall

"West Phoenix's Favorite Mall"

Featuring New Age architectural style, this fully enclosed mall is a massive structure in West Phoenix. Anchored by Macy's and the Apple Store, you will be hard pressed to find a flaw. Highlights include a food court, AMC theater, over 140 retailers, stylish sculptures and an outdoor amphitheater. The food court features sit-down restaurants, like Miracle Mile Deli and Paradise Bakery. After the munchies digest, try out the 30-horse carousel for a night-out.
