

"Best Late Night Dining in Tokyo"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Vinicius Benedit on Unsplash on Unsplash ©

Sushi Zanmai

"Pocket-Friendly Sushi Delights"

One of the most popular joints for traditional Japanese food, Sushi Zanmai is a chain of restaurants that specializes in a variety of kaiten-style of sushi dishes as well as other Japanese food. Whet your appetite with Japan's national dish with one of the fixed price lunch menus where you can relish sushi along with miso soup and an appetizer. You could also opt for a sushi platter and get a taste of different kinds of sushi on offer. Not only are the dishes priced reasonably, but the restaurant is open 24 hours a day, allowing you to relish delicious sushi whenever you desire.

📞 +81 3 3541 1117

🌐 www.kiyomura.co.jp/shops/detail/1

📍 4-11-9 Yubinbango, Tsukiji, Tokyo

📷 by Vinicius Benedit on Unsplash on Unsplash ©

Tsugu Sushimasa

"A Culinary Legacy"

Tsugu Sushimasa is a Tokyo institution that's carved a spot for itself in the city's dining scene. Locals consider this to be one of the top restaurants to appreciate Japanese culinary traditions. What sets the sushi here apart is that they use a heritage vinegar, the origins of which can be traced to the Edo era. The richer flavor imparts a unique depth to the seafood preparations here and makes for a memorable experience. For those who prefer their fish cooked, the menu also features Asian tapas and small plates of grilled seafood preparations. Chef Shogo Sugaya is the third generation in his family to take up the knife and carry on the family legacy, so you're in expert hands here.

📞 +81 3 3358 0934

📍 8 Arakicho, Tokyo

📷 by [puamelia] ©

Shinanoji

"Late-Night Food Joint"

A food haven for late night revelers, Shinanoji is the place to be if you are looking for simple, home style food. Priced reasonably, the food menu comprises of a variety of salads, noodles and soups, perfect to satiate the appetite. Shiratakini, Aji-furai and Doteyaki are just few of the delectable offerings. The budget eatery also doubles up as a bar for those who want to drink some more before taking the next train home. Bring your pals in tow and dine in comfort in one of the separate sitting areas meant exclusively for groups. Offering both comfort food and late-night hours, Shinanoji is quite a popular hangout joint.

📞 +81 3 3875 7456

📍 1-7-4 Negishi, Tokyo

by nikluv

Rokkasen

"All About Beef"

Rokkasen has been serving premium cuts of beef for over three decades. Especially known for their Matsuzaka and Japanese Black Cattle cuts, Rokkase is an ideal place to discover the world of Korean-style barbecue. While the barbecue is the specialty here, you can also opt for their delicious soup, noodle, and seafood preparations. Buffet, shabu-shabu, and all-you-can-eat menus are available too. A great place for a group, business or family outing, this Shinjuku restaurant caters to a diverse clientele. Open till 5am, Rokkasen is equally popular for its set lunch menu as it is its late-night dining.

+81 3 3348 8676

www.rokkasen.co.jp/

1-3-1 Nishi-Shinjuku, Sunflower Building
6 F / 7 F, Tokyo

by fan4tian2

Soba Hiyamugi Sagatani

"Pocket-Friendly Japanese Fare"

A 24 hours food joint, Sagatani allows you to relish quality meals at prices that won't break the bank. Sate your appetite by digging into traditional Japanese food made from fresh ingredients. Whether you want to call for a plain Ramen Noodle Soup or something more traditional like the Goma-Dare Soba, the restaurant makes it all, while also serving also serving chilled beer with the delicious food. Once you are here, simply pay for what you want at the vending machine and pass the receipt to the staff. Thought the absence of English translations makes things tricky, there is always someone there who'll gladly help you with your order. If you are looking to have a feast at pocket friendly prices, head to Sagatani and gorge away.

+81 3 6416 4248

2-25-7 Dogenzaka, Plaza Dogenzaka 1F, Tokyo

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com