The Lockup

"Not Your Average Prison Food"

If you've committed the crime then you should do the time, but do see if you can do your time at Shibuya's The Lockup - the conditions may be questionable, but the grub is supposedly much better! With a sentence consisting of ghoulish decor, mini-labyrinths, handcuffs, strange menu items and drinks served in test tubes, beakers and syringes, this experience can be quite unsettling. Just another of Tokyo's famed themed restaurants, The Lockup has a great reputation for fear, fun, and good food. Great for groups or on a date, the Lockup always seems to be at full capacity, so make your reservations, mentally prepare yourself, and get ready for a jail term you'll most certainly remember! You've been warned!

Uobei

"Futuristic Dining Experience"

Uobei is a sushi restaurant in the Shibuya district which offers a dining experience like no other. Most of the process here is mechanized and high tech with sushi distributed through a conveyor belt. Simply pick out the dish you want using their multi-lingual touch-screen monitors and watch it zoom on to the table in front of you. Although the drinks are served by the staff, the novelty of the restaurant as well as the extremely pocket-friendly prices keep people coming back for more.
