Authentic

"Delicious Burgers and More"

Initially an apprentice at one of Tokyo's more upscale eateries, now chef Takeshi Soto puts his culinary energy and mastery into Authentic, which specializes in gourmet burgers. The jewel in their crown is their innovative Authentic burger. Not for the faint at heart, it offers three beef patties layered with chili, eggs, cheese and bacon, all on a crispy, homemade bun. Want fries with that? They'll make them fresh while you wait, no heat-lamp specials here! Their bacon burger and broccoli cheeseburgers are equally tasty, and so are their sandwiches. Lunchtime gets crowded, so either be patient or come back later.

King George

"The Sandwich Stop"

One of the most popular sandwich bars in the neighborhood, King George is the place to be for a light snack on a busy day. Its elegant interiors set the first impression with its warm colors, carpeted floors, wooden themes and fabulous works of art. Only the freshest possible ingredients go into the sandwiches served here, which adds an extra punch of flavor to them. Popular on the menu is the signature The King George Sandwich, while the PLT and The Meat Head are also worth a try.
