Hot Shot

"Go Wild"

To watch the crowd going wild, visit the city's Hot Shot club. The electrifying music by The Blue Sessions and Euphoric Summer night bands leaves the crowd screaming and begging for more! A well-stocked bar is exactly what one needs to complement the excellent music. The people who visit the club are mostly youngsters from colleges who are active on the dance floor till the very end. The graffiti painted walls accentuate the look of the interiors and are a creation of the people who hang out here. So do you want some of your work up there? Call ahead for opening hours.

Bar Nakagawa

"Icy Sophistication"

Bar Nakagawa is a great place to enjoy a cocktail made with fresh fruit juice or a glass of gin and do a spot of people-watching - the regulars tend to be well-dressed and sophisticated. Nakagawa looks a little igloo-like from the outside and features snow-white curves inside, contrasting beautifully with a long, glossy cherry-wood bar which was designed by a Norwegian, thereby lending it a definite Scandinavian feel.

Fireking Cafe

"Arty Clientele, Evening Cocktails"

Fireking Cafe sits in the fashionable neighborhood of Yoyogi-Uehara, a haven of arty, fashionable types. The interior is classy and elegant, and in the dimly lit room people sit and drink lattes on comfy sofas. In the evening, the after-work crowd comes in to savor ingeniously concocted cocktails from an extensive list. Mojitos are popular but be sure to peruse the menu for other delectable options, including an array of fusion bites cooked to perfection. The artwork on the walls changes seasonally and exhibitions are frequently held here.
