Organ Bar

"Softer Genres"

Organ Bar is a great place to go if one is into a softer and more soothing genre of music such as Jazz, Soul, Groove, Vintage Chill-out and even Hip-Hop. It's a little grunge type, space-movie themed club, usually catering to 20 somethings. The drinks here don't come cheap but they are strong and worth every yen. The ambiance is grunge, chic and very old school, and it's an amazing place to catch up with a few friends as it isn't as ear-piercingly loud as many nightclubs are. Enjoy some great live performances from some great bands and musicians as Organ always has interesting acts lined up. Check website for schedule of updated events and details. The club opens daily at 9p.

Hot Shot

"Go Wild"

To watch the crowd going wild, visit the city's Hot Shot club. The electrifying music by The Blue Sessions and Euphoric Summer night bands leaves the crowd screaming and begging for more! A well-stocked bar is exactly what one needs to complement the excellent music. The people who visit the club are mostly youngsters from colleges who are active on the dance floor till the very end. The graffiti painted walls accentuate the look of the interiors and are a creation of the people who hang out here. So do you want some of your work up there? Call ahead for opening hours.
