Blue Note Tokyo

"Top Jazz Venue in Town"

As the premier jazz venue in Tokyo, the Blue Note is the place to hear some of the world's greatest jazz musicians. Tied in with other clubs in such cities as New York and Milan, Blue Note is able to attract such names as Natalie Cole, Oscar Peterson and Taj Mahal. Arrive early for dinner and enjoy a wide ranging menu offering everything from steaks to seafood. A rustic, elegant setting provides the perfect vibe to enjoy dinner and music and is a must-visit for jazz lovers while in Tokyo.

Body and Soul

"Jazz in the Know"

Jazz lovers only need apply - Body and Soul plays jazz, and only the best jazz and has done so ever since its modest inception in 1974. Many excellent local jazz musicians play here, as well as international stars; Eddie Gomez frequents Body and Soul as do a host of others. It isn't a cheap night out, especially as the admission fee alone can be up to JPY10000, but for jazz fans, it's a must-visit!

Nine Spices

"Live Show Houses"

One can really marvel at the love of music the Japanese have and here in Tokyo one can be greeted by many live houses. Nine Spices is one of them and it has held some of the most prestigious music shows and concerts. Nine Spices is also a bar and a club all rolled into one to present to you, the customer, one of the best entertainment options ever. Talking about the bar, expect some premium drinks from the flounce-free place to send your spirits soaring. Always packed on a weekend, it's also an awesome place to meet like minded people and enjoy some original music played by Japanese bands.

Club Voice

"Let the Music Play"

Club Voice is one of the most happening places in Tokyo to enjoy some live music. There are performances by local and national bands like The Equus, Nape of Jade, R!Call and Pretty Good, to name a few. Events like 'Arena of Pleasure', 'Rock This Town' and 'Fujii Rock Festival' have taken place at this venue. The club has a stage, a floor and a drink counter. You can also rent the club for any social or corporate event.

Cyclone

"Don't Stop the Music"

If you are in Tokyo and want to sway to some really good live music, then Cyclone is the right place to be. Many local and national artists like Fruits Explosion, Abnormals, Cocobat, Zazen Boys and Sim have given some of the best performances at this venue. Cyclone has hosted famous events like 'Cycling Cyclone', 'Doom Age Festival' and 'Green Green Cyclone' to name a few. It is one of the best places to enjoy the nightlife in Tokyo.

Organ Bar

"Softer Genres"

Organ Bar is a great place to go if one is into a softer and more soothing genre of music such as Jazz, Soul, Groove, Vintage Chill-out and even Hip-Hop. It's a little grunge type, space-movie themed club, usually catering to 20 somethings. The drinks here don't come cheap but they are strong and worth every yen. The ambiance is grunge, chic and very old school, and it's an amazing place to catch up with a few friends as it isn't as ear-piercingly loud as many nightclubs are. Enjoy some great live performances from some great bands and musicians as Organ always has interesting acts lined up. Check website for schedule of updated events and details. The club opens daily at 9p.

Hot Shot

"Go Wild"

To watch the crowd going wild, visit the city's Hot Shot club. The electrifying music by The Blue Sessions and Euphoric Summer night bands leaves the crowd screaming and begging for more! A well-stocked bar is exactly what one needs to complement the excellent music. The people who visit the club are mostly youngsters from colleges who are active on the dance floor till the very end. The graffiti painted walls accentuate the look of the interiors and are a creation of the people who hang out here. So do you want some of your work up there? Call ahead for opening hours.
