Chaise Lounge

"Retro Subterranean Hangout"

Indicative of the hip trend in inner Melbourne is Chaise Lounge; a low-lit, retro hideaway that is an 'underground' club in both senses of the word. Beaded dividers separate areas, paraphernalia hangs from the walls and scattered comfortable couches create intimate spaces within the room. The funky decor attracts young urban fringe dwellers that love music. Different genres of music is played all night and Tuesdays feature live jazz. There is no kitchen on site, but snacks such as chips and nuts are available at the bar.

Brown Alley

"24-hour Fun"

Psychedelic lights, constantly spinning music and the crowds lost to the beats of music of different kinds: that's the kind of mood you'll see when stepping into this uber-cool club. A regular hangout for youngsters considering the number of events that take place here, Brown Alley is one place people never feel like leaving. And they don't have to either, since the club is Melbourne's only 24-hour place! With a capacity for a good crowd of 1200, this club is great for all kinds of private events when hired as a venue. They offer DJ facilities and the restaurant is well-equipped to keep the crowds going before or after a night of dancing.
