

"Best Food on a Budget in Singapore"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Public Domain ©

Tamoya

"Japanese Lunch"

Be it a business lunch with your colleagues or a casual lunch with your buddies, this restaurant, located within the Liang Court Shopping Centre can definitely be one of your top choices. The eatery makes popular Japanese preparations like homemade udon with fresh tempura, which is basically a mix of wheat pastas cut into strips in a gravy and vegetables, fish and clams or oysters deep fried in a batter. This pocket-friendly place has become increasingly popular since its inception in March 2013 and is known for its friendly staff and prompt service.

177 River Valley Road, Suite 01-32, Liang Court Shopping Centre, Singapore

📷 by Jeremy Keith ©

The TuckerBox Lunch

"Lunch Break"

Food connoisseurs would love to taste the excellent delicacies this restaurant serves that are tasty and healthy, too. With a great location in the heart of Singapore's business district, The TuckerBox Lunch is a favorite eatery with many office goers and food lovers. The grub they serve here include some famous Japanese preparations such as chirashi, sushi rolls, sashimi and Japanese style spaghetti. Chirashi is mainly a large bowl of rice mixed with vegetables, fish and other ingredients you would want to add. The eatery is renowned for serving bento boxes or packed lunches at various offices at a very reasonable price.

+65 6228 1790

4 Amoy Street, Singapore

📷 by Nesnad ©

Hong Kong Soya Sauce Chicken Rice & Noodle

"Michelin-Starred Street Food"

It's not everyday that one hears of a Michelin star being bestowed upon a humble food stall, which is why the Hong Kong Soya Sauce Chicken Rice & Noodle in Singapore invokes such awe. Located in the bustling Chinatown Complex in the city, this now iconic food stand saw lengthy queues of famished customers long before the star was awarded, making it one of the few hawker food stalls to be associated with this honor. At the helm of this street food genius is Chef Chan Hon Meng, who passionately prepares traditional delicacies such as Braised Chicken, Hong Kong-style Soya Sauce Chicken and delicious Chicken Noodles at his thriving stall. Locals will guarantee that the food is every bit worth the wait, and paying a small price for a Michelin-star meal only heightens the experience.

335 Smith Street, Chinatown Complex, Singapore

by Public Domain

Guzman y Gomez

"Healthy Mexican Food"

Foodies would conjure up a colorful image the moment they get to hear about Mexican food. If you love hot and spicy food which is synonymous with Mexican dishes such as burritos, tacos, quesadillas, spicy grilled chicken, salsa, fish and fresh vegetables you should visit Guzman y Gomez. To complement your meals they offer a slew of Mexican beers, tequilas, and special frozen drinks. If you are one of those who is on a diet watch, this food joint serves customized dishes to meet your dietary needs. Established in October 2013, this place is known for its prompt service and friendly staff. Located within the Asia Square Tower 2 Foodcourt, this restaurant is definitely your to-go place for Mexican cravings.

+65 8499 3428

www.gyg.com.sg/

info@gyg.com.sg

12 Marina View, Asia Square
Tower 2 Foodcourt,
Singapore

by Tanya Procyshyn

Shiraz Mezzah

"Middle Eastern food on the go"

If you work up an appetite shopping on Orchard Road, refuel with a quick bite at this food stand specializing in Middle Eastern cuisine. Shiraz Mezzah has a small but satisfying menu of shawarma sandwiches (chicken or lamb), vegetarian falafel wraps, and German sausages. For a complete meal try a combo with a side of fries and drink. The Persian-style sandwiches are the perfect food for eating and walking or there are a handful of tables for customers. Shiraz Mezzah food stands can also be found outside Equity Plaza, Ngee Ann City Mall, and Clarke Quay.

+65 6887 5005

www.shirazfnb.com/

5383 Orchard Road, The Forum, No.
01-K3, Singapore

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com