Imperial Cinema

"It's Movie Time"

Imperial Cinema is one of the most famous cinema houses in this part of Montreal. It's a charming old theater where you can enjoy a movie accompanied by a tub of popcorn. Watch the latest flicks in this fine theater and don't miss the film festivals it plays host to; the Cinemania Film Festival. Call ahead for further updates.

Cinéma du Parc

"Bare Bones Repertory House"

Do not expect stadium seating, interactive experiences or IMAX screens. There is nothing fancy here, but this student-favorite repertory house is the source in Montreal for English art films, second-runs, Canadian productions and specialty films like midnight horror features. Their program is available all over the city in various bars and restaurants.

Cinéma Beaubien

"Reel Experience"

Cinéma Beaubien is an independent theater that specializes in art-house cinema and indie films. The cinema focuses on original films while also screening a selection of commercial movies as well. A community oriented art space, Beaubien welcomes its fair share of movie lovers looking for a unique experience. The family-friendly theater also hosts special screenings and events for kids and their parents. The exciting schedule of new releases, excellent sound systems, and a menu of delicious refreshments ensures a fun time while in Montreal.
