

"Best Specialty in San Jose"

Realizado por : Cityseeker

📍 5 Ubicaciones indicadas

📷 by RobynsWorld ©

Taqueria Corona

"From the Heart of Mexico"

"Taquería" means a "taco shop" in Spanish. Taqueria Corona, situated in Japantown, is popular not only for its tangy tacos but also for its Mexican food in general. It provides a modest and homey ambience but its delicious food takes the cake. Guests can start their meal with soups like Posole (pork soup) and Cosido (beef and vegetable soup). The other soups have meatballs, shrimp, chicken and lamb. Savor appetizers like Tacos Dorados, Chile Colorado and Fajitas De Pollo along with a main course comprising of New York Steak A La Mexicana and Tequila Shrimp. One can also add side dishes for variety, including guacamole, sour cream, tortillas and rice with beans.

☎ +1 408 925 9336

💻 iacoronataqueria.business.site/

📍 601 North 4th Street, San José CA

📷 by Omad ©

Hijinx Comics

"Massive Comic Books Collection"

Believed to be the first comic book store in the city of San Jose, every trip at Hijinx Comics is an experience. Do not be fooled by the small floor space because the place has a huge store room at the back which is like Aladdin's cave for any comic book lover. The store is known for their personalized service; their staff is very friendly and they will help you in all way to get the book your looking for. In any case if they are not carrying the book, they will order it for you. Look out for their sales, when you can stock up on your comic book stash at really cheap prices.

☎ +1 408 266 1103

💻 www.hijinxcomics.com/

📍 2050 Lincoln Avenue, San José CA

📷 by Public Domain ©

Vintage Wine Merchants

"Timeless Wines and Conversations"

Vintage Wine Merchants delights their patrons with a selection of highly impressive and delectable international as well as domestic wines. These can be purchased at the store or enjoyed sitting on high stools with a group. Select a combination of red, white to bubbly and complement these beauties with plates of olives, Truffle Honey, berries and cheese plates, Pork-Folio, crackers, etc. While sitting at the store you can buy wines by the glass. If you wish to buy a bottle; the prices are quite reasonable than retail. If you buy a bottle that costs over USD30 corkage fee is waived off. The service here is excellent and their staff is highly knowledgeable. This is not a wine bar but an elegant wine shop where you can sit and appreciate good wine. If you wish to explore their wine bar, the Vintage Wine Bar is just a couple of minutes walk away.

☎ +1 408 260 1115

💻 www.vintagewinemerchants.com/

📍 377 Santana Row, San José CA

by Rachel Park on Unsplash
on Unsplash

Marie Callender's

"Baked Goodies, Breakfast & More"

When it comes to serving delicious baked goods and an equally lavish breakfast platter, the Marie Callender's outlet at San Jose is unparalleled. As you enter, the warm and sweet aroma of fresh pies welcomes you and further whets your appetite. Dishes like Fresh Avocado and Shrimp Stack, Oven-Roasted Vegetable Platter, Cajun Atlantic Salmon with Broccoli and many more await you here. And, on Tuesdays, along with an entree order, your little ones can enjoy a free treat too. Guests can either sit inside and gorge on the fare or simply avail the take away service. For a detailed menu, check website or call ahead.

+1 408 578 0643

www.mariecallenders.com//san-jose-restaurant-bakery/13

620 Blossom Hill Road, Blossom Hill & Chesbro, San José CA

UNIRSE A NOSOTROS A:

cityseeker.com