Harman's Cafe

"Ethiopian Flavors on a Budget"

Harman's Cafe is unique and delightful in more ways than one. Absolutely family friendly, this quaint restaurant takes pride in their authentic, Ethiopian food which is cooked to perfection and served in humongous portions. Start your day with their Inqulal Sandwich, a combination of eggs and beef or the Inqulal Firfir which is a spicy take on classic scrambled eggs. Pancakes and French toasts are available for the little ones. The lunch menu is filled with delectable Ethiopian dishes like Misir which is a herb-infused stew and the Souf Fietfiet, a flavored, sunflower juice. Meat lovers are sure to enjoy Harman's Cafe's meat combo. Do not leave without trying their special Ethiopian coffee.

Baked Expectations

"Sinfully Incredible Desserts"

If you experience feelings of guilt after sampling wonderfully rich and sweet food, this is not the best space for your conscience. Crazy Chocolate, cappuccino cheesecake and cherry trifle are only a few of the delectable sweets offered at Baked Expectations an incredible dessert place, which incidentally also serves pasta and sandwiches. This spot with its black and white tiled floors and reminiscent old soda shop furniture, is a haunt for anyone who wants excellent desserts and a taste of the old sweet shop.

Marion Street Eatery

"Breakfast Calling!"

Marion Street Eatery in the Marion Hotel lights up the breakfast scene in Saint Boniface daily, with its eclectic menu of hot breakfasts. Simply prepared, yet loaded with taste and flavor, this breakfast destination is easily one of Winnipeg's best. Savor Canadian and American treats such as the Eggs Benny, the chorizo-filled Breakfast Wrap and the elaborate Apple Whiskey Pancake Stack. An all-day menu is also available for post-breakfast eats. Prices are affordable and the staff friendly. The decor, adorned with wooden tables, counter-seating and rustic wall-pieces, is charming and timeless. Marion Street Eatery does not take reservations, so getting an early start is advisable.
