Scarab Club

"Historic Artists' Club & Gallery"

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Scarab Club, built in 1928, is a vivid example of protomodern, Arts and Crafts architecture. The boxy brick building sits alone among parking lots east of the Detroit Institute of Arts in the Cultural Center. It is a private club with a gallery and frequent shows open to the public. The club was founded in 1910 as the Hopkin Club, named after Detroit's first renowned painter, Bob Hopkin. The second-floor lounge has ceiling beams signed by local and national artists including Diego Rivera and Norman Rockwell. The art displayed is highly eclectic. Annual member shows include everything from photography and sculpture to poetry readings and concerts.

Museo Motown

"Recuerdos de la música"

Bienvenidos a Hitsville USA, hogar de la famosa firma discográfica Motown Records. El dueño de la firma, Berry Gordy Jr. trabajó con artistas de la talla de Smokey Robinson, The Miracles, Stevie Wonder, The Temptations, The Jackson Five, Rare Earth y muchos más. El museo se encuentra en la casa restaurada de Berry y fue armado por la hermana de Berry, Esther Gordy Edwards, en 1985. Aquí podrán recorrer la galería y visitar el famoso Studio A, donde se grabaron muchos éxitos musicales. Retrocedan en el tiempo y observen cómo un pequeño estudio del EE. UU vio nacer a algunas de las más grandes estrellas de la música. Recorran el museo por su cuenta o súmense a un recorrido guiado.

International Gospel Music Hall of Fame & Museum

"Sweet Sounds of Soul"

Established in 1995, this grass-roots music museum opened on the northwest side of Detroit, in the heart of gospel music country. The Gospel Music Hall of Fame and Museum pays tribute to national and local gospel artists. It also highlights the role the gospel tradition played in the development of Motown singers. The museum relies primarily on donations. The museum is open for tours by appointment only.
