Habana

"Nuevo Latino"

Habana es un restaurante excelente con un menú rico que permite explorar lo mejor de la cocina cubana en un ambiente latino. Aquí ustedes se sentirán como si estuvieran en un cafecito de La Habana. Es un lugarcito donde la comida es buenisima y el ambiente, acogedor. Gran parte de la clientela son las personas que trabajan en la zona. El menú destaca la cocina Nueva Latina (no solamente cubana), con grandes influencias sudamericanas. Los tamales, los mariscos picantes y el cerdo marinado son excelentes. El bar está muy completo y la lista de vinos es bastante buena.

Natraj Cuisine of India

"Quality Indian Fare"

This is known as a high-ticket Indian restaurant that is still a great value. The atmosphere is low-key and the focus is on the food. The clientele is diverse, with businesspeople stopping in for the popular lunch buffet and others coming in for dinner to enjoy a relaxing meal. There is live music in the evenings, featuring classic Indian melodies. The menu is north Indian, with a heavy focus on lamb and chicken, with dishes curries and vindaloo. The vegetables are also very good and packed with flavor. The tandoori dishes are spectacular and are made in the famous clay oven. Beer and wine are served with a few bottles of wine available in the low-to-medium price range.

Ristorante Rumari

"Italian Oasis by the Sea"

Family owned and operated, Ristorante Rumari has been a Laguna Beach favorite since it opened its doors in 1990. Their vine covered patio with ocean views sets the scene to indulge in their extensive menu featuring traditional Italian fare highlighted by regional seafood specialties such as Cioppino and Risotto al Mare. The wine list is lengthy and includes not only Italian selections but excellent Californian and French vintages as well. Of course desert is not to be missed, and make sure to top off your meal the Italian way with a frothy cappuccino.
