The Huddle

"Hip & Grungy Local Dive"

The Huddle draws in Costa Mesa's young, hip and grungy set with cheap pitchers, a sizable amount of pool tables, arcade games, dart boards and more. The decor is nothing ornate, wood paneled walls and branded pennants is as dressed up as it gets. A small number of booths, tables and high counters are scattered on one end of the bar, making room for eight pool tables that maintain a sizable line throughout the evening. A small outdoor smoking patio may be the most densely populated area of The Huddle, a consistent crowd flowing in and out of the tiny backroom space. Cheap drinks, typical dive bar service and a high energy atmosphere are just part of why The Huddle is a local favorite night after night.

Class of '47

"Casual Bar"

Class of '47 is a locally-owned dive bar that serves very cheap and very basic drinks. If you're looking for fancy cocktails and martinis, this is not the place for you. Here you can grab a drink every night of the week in a casual setting that takes pride in the fact that, despite what its name might suggest, this joint has "no class."

Cassidy's Bar & Grill

"Excellent Burgers"

Cassidy's Bar & Grill is well known for having one of the best burgers in Newport Beach, "The Cassidy's Cheeseburger," as well as a great tri tip sandwich. Food and beverage-wise, they have everything you want after a long day at the beach. Their burgers, drinks, music, and games (including pool table) will keep you entertained till 2am every night of the week.

Mutt Lynch's

"Ideal para citas"

Con una vista inigualable de la Isla Catalina, este famoso bar y restaurante es una de las principales opciones para una cita. En el menú encontrarán pizzas, hamburguesas y emparedados, y para beber, cerveza y vino. Los precios son moderados y la comida, fantástica. Pero lo mejor del lugar son las mesas de picnic: desde siempre, las parejas que vienen a este restaurante tallan sus nombres en las mesas, y a los que vienen por primera vez se les pide que hagan lo mismo. El restaurante, además, cuenta con un menú para niños.

Sandpiper Lounge

"Diversión nocturna"

El Sandpiper Lounge es el rey de la noche en Laguna Beach desde que abrió sus puertas en la década de 1940. También conocido con el nombre de Pájaro Sucio, este bar temático de buceo suele atraer multitudes locas para mirar los músicos en vivo que mantienen a todo el mundo bailando hasta altas horas de la madrugada. Con una lista de precios que arranca en USD5 y sus "servidas de 4 segundos", encontrarán lo que vinieron a buscar. El lounge es un lugar genial para pasar un rato entre amigos, escuchar buena música y ver gente hermosa y bronceada los 365 días del año. Literalmente.
