Disneyland París

"Pan de la Región con Polvo de Hadas"

Ubicado a un corto viaje en tren desde París, el complejo Disneyland fue recibido con señas fruncidos cuando lo inauguraron en 1992. Pero parece que toda controversia ya pasó al olvido y en la actualidad Disneyland París es una de las atracciones turísticas más visitadas de toda Europa y recibe más de 15 millones de visitantes por año (más que el Louvre y la Torre Eiffel combinados). Al igual que en los demás parques temáticos de Disney de todo el mundo, esperen encontrar los grandes clásicos, como el castillo de la Bella Durmiente, a los Piratas del Caribe, la Tierra Fantasia y la escabrosa Frontierland. Adventureland es única y sigue una temática de Aladín, completa con un bazar y un restaurante. Es muy fácil llegar a Disneyland desde el centro de París, solo deben tomar la línea C del RER hasta Marne-la-Vallée. La estación de tren está ubicada en la entrada al parque. Si desean pasar varios días explorando el parque en familia, en la zona encontrarán varios hoteles fabulosos propiedad de Disney que incluyen el fantástico Disney's New York Hotel, de estilo art deco.

"Noble Residence on the Marne"

A long and intricate maze of ornamental hedges leads up to this elegant chateau, built at the turn of the 18th century. In 1935, the property was taken over by the French government and played host to distinguished foreign guests until 1974 when it was opened to the public. Château de Vaux le Vicomte

"Romance Château Style"

This château has two significantly inspired events. One was the tragic downfall of Fouquet, a minister who paid the price of life imprisonment because King Louis XIV was jealous of his beautiful château. And under the influence of Fouquet, Vaux-le-Vicomte became a haven for French artists, writers and sculptors who gave their all for the glory of the residence. Check the website for information on the different visits. There is a candlelight visit that is going to be apt for all the lovebirds. Hours vary throughout the year and you can buy passes for more than one day; see the website or call for more information.
