Hostal Goya

"Charming Goya"

Hostal Goya is the ideal allegory for Barcelona, stylish, charming and absolutely no fuss, it is located close to Plaça Catalunya. The minimalistic approach and art nouveau building perfectly blend to give you a soothing bed and breakfast experience. All the 19 rooms are bright and welcoming and the apartments are chic offering a kitchen, a big living room along with a balcony. The lounge is a nice place to relax while sipping on a cuppa or tea on the comfy sofas. The hostel offers valuable information that will enhance your Barcelona expedition.

BarcelonaBB

"Basic Necessities"

If you are looking out for a B&B that is friendly, no fuss and is efficient enough to take care of your basic needs while giving you the much needed privacy, then BarcelonaBB might fit your bill. The four vibrant and cozy rooms with shared bathrooms, a welcoming lounge area and small patio and the South American trinkets adorning the rooms along with the Botero prints add character to the accommodation. The Blue room is the smallest of all while the Chimney is the most genteel and is located in a different building. WiFi and a hearty breakfast are the perks of this place.

Poblenou Bed and Breakfast

"Restful B&B"

Formerly known as the Hostal Poblenou, Poblenou Bed and Breakfast is housed in a picturesque 1930's building, retaining all its classic charm and character by keeping the ceiling height and colored tiled floors intact after renovating it. Cozy rooms that are welcoming and a great place to rest after the days excursion, and free breakfast are one of the perks that Poblenou offers. Relish the breakfast at their plant-filled patio-terrace for a refreshing morning. All the six rooms are named after famous Catalan artists and are air conditioned.
