Au Vieux Panier

"Sleep in a Masterpiece"

Au Vieux Panier is hotel known for its unique guest rooms. Here you can sleep in a room that was created by an artist, be it a painter or graphic designer. Each room has a distinct look and personality, with one of their best known rooms designed as if you had a split personality since it's half-white and half-graffiti. Guests can enjoy the unusual decor as well as the comfortable rooms.

Richelieu Hotel

"Coastal Conviviality"

At the Hotel Richelieu the sun shines both inside and out, so come on in! Hidden beneath a somewhat timeworn façade, you'll find a warm and welcoming interior. 16 of the hotel's 21 rooms open directly onto Catalans beach, and the view from your balcony onto Marseilles' islands is unrivaled. Each room has a different theme making this a very unique feature of the hotel.
