Le Petit Nice Passédat

"Luxury Hotel on the Coast Road"

Perched on the rocks of Malmousque cove, this impressive white villa is paradise found on the southern edge of the city. A favorite hideaway for the world's rich and famous, its simply yet exquisitely decorated rooms look out over the Mediterranean and its glorious sunsets. As an alternative to Petit Nice Passédat's seawater swimming pool, a short walk through the hotel's pretty gardens leading down to the seashore takes you to the public beach situated just below the hotel. Renowned for its finely prepared cuisine and creative menu, the hotel's prestigious restaurant provides the perfect setting for that special lunch or dinner date.

Hotel Restaurant Cesar

"Luxury Break"

Just a few minutes from the centre of Marseilles, the prestigious Hotel Restaurant Le Cesar, with its authentic Provençal charm, extends a warm welcome to all its guests. The comfortable rooms are fitted with all the latest facilities, and for those who want to keep in shape, health and fitness facilities are available, including a steam room, swimming pool, sauna and gym. However, the restaurant, which serves delicious Southern-French inspired cuisine, may undo all your good work!

Paradou Méditerranée

"Peaceful Prestige"

Set amid the Côte Bleue, the coastline which runs west of Marseilles, Sausset-les-Pins is a well-known seaside resort. The Paradou Méditerranée overlooks the port, where the dance of the Pointus Marseillais (brightly-coloured little boats) is sure to enchant. The rooms are air-conditioned, with good facilities, and guests are invited to enjoy the restaurant's southern-French style cuisine by the poolside.
