Bottega Veneta

"World-Famous Leather Goods"

Bottega Veneta is world-renowned for their leather goods. However their apparels, accessories, jewelry, perfumes and home decor are equally noteworthy. Their branch on Campo San Moisè is a great place to look out for artisanal products. Add a splash of style to your wardrobe with their elegant handbags, ready-to-wear, wallets, scarves, belts, moccasins, bags and bracelets. Or deck up your home with their contemporary furnishings and furniture.

Al Duca D'Aosta Uomo

"Prendas de Diseñador"

Fundado en 1902 como fábrica de telas para hombre, Al Duca D'Aosta Uomo ha recorrido un largo trayecto hasta convertirse en una de las boutiques para hombres y mujeres más prestigiosas en toda la ciudad. Dirigida por la cuarta generación de la familia fundadora, la boutique reúne a los mejores diseñadores bajo el mismo techo. Desde vestimenta hasta accesorios, bolsos y joyas, la colección es impecable y bastante costosa. Pero si aman la moda y quieren exhibir los mejores diseños, los precios no les parecerán lo más importante.

La Casa di Loto

"Like a Venetian Period Drama"

Time comes to a halt at La Casa di Loto and so do most shoppers who pass by its attractive window displays. Inside, the atmosphere of the 1920s pervades throughout with old-styled tables covered with tablecloths and cutlery, vintage lighting, and old dressing tables and cupboards preserving the secrets of a bygone era, replete with vintage clothing and accessories. Whether you are looking for soft brown fur to dress up like a grand lady, lustrous silk trousers and dresses, sequined outfits, layered skirts, tulle frocks, vintage jeans, apparel sewed from Venetian lace or traditional local garbs, you are sure to find it here. Dress up like a glam doll, an early 20th Century princess or a fashionista from the 1950s: pick your style and show up at a party as a classic Venetian icon.
