Chinatown (Barrio Chino)

"Asia en Manhattan"

El barrio chino de Nueva York es un paraíso cultural lleno de antiguas y exóticas, tradiciones y una gran cantidad de restaurantes. Este barrio concurrido es el hogar de más de la mitad de la población china de la ciudad. En las tiendas de comestibles y puestos de frutas, se pueden encontrar muchos artículos de comida que no están disponibles en ninguna otra parte de la ciudad, desde frutas y hortalizas exóticas hasta caracoles vivos y camarones secos. Además, hay excelentes restaurantes tailandeses, vietnamitas y coreanos. Cada año nuevo lunar, las calles se llenan de bullicio con el Desfile del Año Nuevo Chino.

Stock Vintage

"Stocking Only Vintage"

A store dedicated to vintage styles for men, Stock Vintage focuses on authentic items from eras past, as opposed to brand names. In addition to vintage apparel, this store carries eyewear, shoes and hats. Vintage boots, trousers and leather jackets are some of the most popular items.

Beacon's Closet

"Brands at a Bargain"

Bright, spacious and filled to the brim with branded merchandise at bargain prices, Beacon's Closet is the place to go to for those must-have looks at an affordable price. All items are hand selected by the staff at the acquisitions counter, ensuring that every item stocked at the store meets their exacting standards of quality. Hit the refresh button on your wardrobe and bring in items that you don't need any more for sweet deals on fairly new merchandise. Boasting an eclectic collection, at Beacon's Closet you are sure to find something that is just right for you.

East 67th Street Market

"Vibrant Flea Market"

East 67th Street Market is one of the oldest flea markets in Manhattan's Upper East Side. You will find everything and anything from antiques to jewelry, designer eye wear, fresh farm produce, books and more. The market is located in the outdoor schoolyard and indoor cafeteria of PS 183. It is a shopper's haven as you will find good stuff at cheap prices, truly a great bargain! The market is open only on Saturdays throughout the year, no matter what the season is. While shopping, you can also satisfy your hunger at the numerous sweet and savory stalls in the market.
