Abby Lane

"Casual Fine Dining"

Abby Lane strikes the right balance between casual and upscale dining. Executive Chef Jason Santos prepares a contemporary American menu heavily influenced by Asian and French flavors. With a creative spin on the classics, the menu features pan-seared duck, split-roasted half chicken, clam chowder and an array of pizzas to accompany drafts sparkling wine and inventive libations. Its proximity to Theater District makes it a go-to destination for guests looking to dine before or after a show. The family-oriented space boasts neighborhood views, low seating and chic decor for an old-worldly and sophisticated feel.

The Warren Tavern

"Taberna histórica colonial"

The Warren Tavern se remonta a 1780, se ubica cerca del Freedom Trail, y tiene mucha historia. Fue inaugurada por el capitán Eliphelet Newell, quien dicen que ha participado en el Motín del Té de Boston. Entre los famosos que la han visitado se encuentran Paul Revere y George Washington. Hoy en día, cuenta con ventanas con cortinas de encaje y techos bajos con vigas de madera que crean un ambiente íntimo. No hay que dejar de probar el especial de la taberna: pechuga de pollo y camarones salteados con tomates secos, champiñones, brócoli, jamón y queso provolone en salsa de ajo con vino blanco.

The Blue Ox

"Award-Winning American Fare"

Talked about in superlatives in most quarters since its inception, The Blue Ox offers a carefully-crafted menu of American specialties that utilize the finest of the region's fresh produce, in an elegant atmosphere. The restaurant interiors sport a cool, eye-pleasing palette and give off a relaxed vibe. Some excellent artworks by a local artist adorn the walls, and give character to the dining room. The menu is reiteration of classic American fare, but with the chef's own highly contemporary takes. Start off with the diverse appetizer selection with delights like Baked Stuffed Brie and Spicy Tuna Tartare. The entree selection presents the best of the region's seafood and meat specialties. Burgers are an especially popular affair and should not be missed. There's pasta as well for lighter bites. The well-chosen wine list features some excellent choices including local producers, while the selection of cocktails on offers is worth a try. Consistently garnering stellar accolades and awards, The Blue Ox is a must-visit when in Lynn.
