

"Best Cocktail Bars in Austin"

Realizado por : Cityseeker

📍 7 Ubicaciones indicadas

Pêche

"Mixological Delights"

Pêche is French for 'sin' and this is definitely the place to go to for wickedly delicious cocktails. This locale offers fine French fare, with daily specials that include everything from quintessentially French soups and grilled veal porterhouse to lamb cassoulet and pork involtini. They have an envious drink menu that consists of its famous pre-prohibition cocktails like the classic Sazerac or the more contemporary ones like the fig Manhattan, not to mention it's Austin's first absinthe bar. Stop on by for a trip to the old world of classy cuisine at Pêche

Hangar Lounge

"Lounge Retro"

Hangar Lounge se encuentra en la esquina de las calles Colorado y West 4th, en el distrito Warehouse, y cuenta con una temática de aviación, tal como su nombre lo sugiere. Los relojes muestran la hora de ciudades de todo el mundo, y el mobiliario y la decoración son elegantes y retro. La segunda planta contiene más áreas de descanso y TV, pero la joya de este lugar sin duda es la azotea, donde los clientes se encontrarán descansando con una vista impresionante de la ciudad.

Driskill Bar

"High-Class Austin Style"

Located in the historic downtown Driskill Hotel, at the center of the entertainment district, Driskill Bar boasts of some of the finest drinks in Austin. Its chic, rather lavish interiors set the first good impression, with its exquisitely carpeted floors, dim-lighting and elegantly upholstered furniture. The drink choices are plentiful, including the selection of wine. Best known for its innovative cocktails, the bartenders signatures concoctions like as the Barton Springs, Spyglass and The Batini, are not-to-be-missed. The cigar selection is quite adequate for those who care to indulge in life's little pleasures. Whether you are looking for top quality scotch, champagne, or maybe just a little mixed drink to soften the day, the bartender can satisfy your need. Add extraordinary happy hours and great live music to the existing excitement and you have a bar that you simply can't miss.

Midnight Cowboy

"Refined Cocktails"

Midnight Cowboy occupies a space that was once a brothel, with a bare red lightbulb being the only indicator of the existence of this speakeasy on the infamous street. Interiors have been completely overhauled and now sport a sleek and stylish vibe. Ornate light fittings, plush private booths and Victorian-themed wallpapers make up the intimate space. On offer is a refined selection of cocktails, mixed with skill by the bar team, some done tableside with much flourish by the period-attired bartenders. Reservations are recommended as only a limited number can be seated at the intimate bar.

Whisler's

"Rustic Style Cocktails"

Whisler's was an old bar formerly known as Rabbit's which has been revamped by the owner. The bar has a rustic charm to it. From the dimly lit chandeliers to the veteran looking walls and the extending patio, the place has a beauty of its own and so do the drinks on the menu. Whisler's is know for its friendly bartenders and lively cocktails that they craft. They also serve a few non-alcoholic drinks. It is a great place for groups to unwind in Austin.
