Lake Fairfax Park and Campgrounds

"Lakeside Camping"

Situated on the shores of Lake Fairfax, Lake Fairfax Park and Campgrounds makes for a wonderful place to use as a home base when visiting Washington DC and the surrounding areas. Along with the campground, the park also contains picnic areas, a skate park, and a water park to splash around in when the summer days heat up. The campground offers both shady and sunny sites, all of which are equipped with a picnic table and fire ring, the latter of which also comes with a grill top for roasting hot dogs as the sun sets over Lake Fairfax.

Burke Lake Park Campground

"Burke Lake Beauty"

With the scenic beauty of Burke Lake out your tent flap, and the historical attractions of Washington DC only a short drive away, it is no wonder that Burke Lake Park Campground is a popular spot with visitors to the area. While the family campsites only allow a maximum of seven people and are offered on a first-come, first-serve basis, reservations can be made for group campsites. The park also offers activities like mini golf, disc golf, and large mouth bass fishing for those fish enthusiasts visiting the United States' capital.
