La Tasca

"Tapas At Tasca"

La Tasca is a great place to splurge on Spanish cuisine in true Spanish style with plenty of traditional dishes to choose from, accompanied by fine wine and sangria and lots of flamenco dancing. It is located close to the major attractions of the city making it a busy dining spot. Try the charcuterie, chorizo, Paella del Pescador or seafood paella. One can also try the tasting menus. The restaurant has a warm and friendly staff and a cozy ambiance.

Jaleo

"Gustito a España"

Este restaurante informal toma su nombre de la pintura de John Singer Sargent, El Jaleo. Un gran mural de una bailarina de flamenco, basado en el trabajo de Sargent, adorna una pared en el restaurante y establece el tono informal del interior. Jaleo es el lugar perfecto para beber sangría, devorar sabrosas tapas y tentar al paladar con paella. Bailarines de flamenco entretienen al público todos los miércoles.

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge

"The Spanish Flair"

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge will cocoon you in a wonderful Spanish experience, from the food to the decor. The menu is known for its recipes that replicate the cuisine from the Iberian Peninsula. Choose from their range of tapas and paella to gorge on and accompany it with some cocktails or wines. The restaurant is covered in hues of black and grey, with splashes of red that give it a vibrant feel. The best time to visit this restaurant is on a Thursday for dinner, when guests can engage themselves in an entertaining flamenco dance.
