Buena Vista Deli

"Superb Food in the Neighborhood"

Owned by two French chefs, this is a place where you can get excellent food. And, it's relaxed enough for you to meet your friends for breakfast, lunch and conversation. Claude Postel, one of the owners, comes from a long line of chefs and uses the freshest ingredients in his chocolate, pastry, and pâté. Buena Vista Deli's menu is not large, but it has variety: there are imported cheeses and cold cuts, French saucisson, duck pâté and other French delicacies to make sandwiches. Niçoise salad, Greek feta cheese and kalamata olives salad are all worth trying. The quiche Provençal is superb and it's served with the salad of your choice. Desserts are not to be missed

Sarussi Subs

"Finger-Licking Yummy"

Located in the beautiful neighborhood of Flagami, just west to downtown, Sarussi Subs is a small sandwich restaurant, that serves some of the best Cuban subs. With little or no ambiance, this place is perfect for an on-the-go sandwich or a family lunch. Their classic Cuban sandwich, is renowned across Miami, and is prepared with fresh Cuban bread, pickles, Swiss cheese, mustard and also salami if you ask for. Other subs include the Sarussi Churrasco, Sarussi Chorizo and Meatball BBQ. Drop by and savor into the gorgeous delights that they have to offer.
