Chez Lucien

"Burgers and Beer"

Packed to the brim, Chez Lucien is noisy, cozy and cheerful. One of the most popular neighborhood bars, they are best known for their flavor-packed burgers made from organic beef sourced from O'Brien Farms. Each burger comes with a fresh salad and crisp home-made fries at no extra charge. If you're luck enough to grab a seat, order a burger and maybe select some tunes from their jukebox. A far cry from your usual greasy spoon, the restaurant's rustic decor with exposed-brick walls and polished wooden furniture creates a warm ambiance for diners to enjoy.

The Works Gourmet Burger Bistro

"Delectable Burger Spot"

If you are craving for some scrumptious burgers, The Works Gourmet Burger Bistro is the answer to your prayers. This restaurant is known for offering some of the best burgers in town and also entices your palate with American delicacies. For people with food allergens, The Works Gourmet Burger Bistro offers a range of gluten-free options to devour. Though the restaurant has limited alcohol options, their hand-scooped shakes and slushies taste heavenly and are perfect accompaniments for a wholesome meal. Its elegant interiors have a rustic charm, complemented with the warm hospitality which ensures you have a pleasant experience while dining.

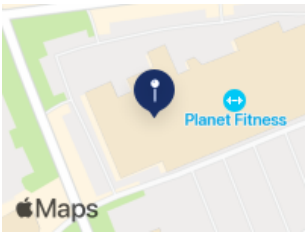
The Butchery/Veras Burger Express



"Burgers & Steaks"

This is unlike your ordinary butcher shop. Opened in 1980, The Butchery/Veras Burger Express is a great place for meat lovers. This huge meat market with various sections for their meat displays not only sells quality meat cuts but also serves food. The rustic chandeliers, black and white tiles and wooden accents of this establishment, give it a welcoming look. Enjoy quality burgers from their on-site Veras Burger Express or for a more meaty platter from the butcher, you can try their dinner specials from Wednesdays to Saturdays.
