Cakeshop

"Don't Go By The Name"

Located in an old building with exposed steel and concrete along with dim lights, the Cakeshop is an underground club in Itaewon. The warehouse styled club features a huge dance floor, lounges and a terrace. With music being the priority, you will find the best of DJs playing here and clubbers grooving till wee in the morning during weekends. The raw energy of Cakeshop has made it a popular spot in Seoul's nightlife.

Once In A Blue Moon

"Seoul's Own Blue Moon"

Swing to the tune of Jazz and fusion music at the Once In A Blue Moon. This is Seoul's own, designed on the likes of Blue Moon Stars of America—a place where you can feel like you are in Chicago or New Orleans. The food prices are a bit on the higher side, but considering the excellent French, Mexican and other local dishes they offer, this can be happily ignored. Order their famous lobsters and eye steaks that are just mouth-watering, and accompany it with any one of the 300 wines available here.

Monkey Museum

"Posh Lounge"

Besides its quirky name, there is nothing eccentric about the Monkey Museum. The brainchild of Seungri, a member of the popular South Korean boy band, Big Bang, it is a private lounge and club. This high-end spot with its swank decor and cozy ambiance is known to host among the finest DJs from across the world. Though it only opened in 2016, it has gained in popularity and is a favorable choice with the city's hipsters.

Dstar

"After Sunrise Partying"

Gangnam is among the elitist neighborhoods of Seoul. Naturally you will find plenty of trendy spots to dine, shop, drink and party. One such place and most probably the only one in the city is the D-Star. Set in the hip and luxurious, GLAD LIVE, this swanky after hours club is where you can groove to the tunes of top EDM musicians till next day morning, after sunrise! The 3D video mapping adds another fun element to the overall clubbing experience at this spot.

Freebird Cosmic Live

"Home Of Korean Rock"

Free Bird is regarded as the home of Korean rock bands. On the walls are numerous autographs of famous Korean bands who have visited this establishment. Although the stage is not very large, customers enjoy the positioning of seats so close to the stage. Everyday, this place is crowded with people anxious to hear loud rock music. For drinks, have some beer or pick out from their other list of beverages.

"Experimental EDM"

If you are a true fan of EDM, then Vurt might intrigue you. Opened in 2014, its unlike the swanky or flashy clubs you will find in town. Dimly lit, this underground club's minimalist design is kept in mind for clubbers to groove to the enthralling techno beats. Listen to the beats of talented techno artists who will take underground music to the next level.
