

"Best Brew Pubs/Local Brews in Montreal"

Créé par: Cityseeker

 5 Emplacements marqués

 by SocialButterflyMMG

L' Abreuvoir

"Over a Glass of Beer"

Chic and classy, L'Abreuvoir pub is your answer to a chilled out place, where you can relax with your friends and colleagues. Offering choicest variety of liquors and wines, this venue can accommodate a decent crowd and is mainly overcrowded on weekends. The best thing about this place is that it features a terrace that offers a stunning view of the surrounding area. This pub serves some delectable snacks like Chicken Wings and Pizza, apart from exotic cocktails. You can watch your favorite matches on the seven television screens indoors or listen to some awesome live music played by the bands. There are plenty of events happening here at all times, so join in the fun! Whether you're the one to relax and enjoy your beer or the kind to shake it up to the DJ beats, L'Abreuvoir caters to both kinds of audiences.

 +1 514 843 5469

 www.abreuvoir.ca/

 info@abreuvoir.ca

 403 Rue Ontario Est, Corner of St. Denis, Montréal QC

 by SocialButterflyMMG

Reservoir

"Plateau Brasserie with a Surprising Brunch Menu"

Reservoir is the perfect location for just about any outing – whether it's a late weekend brunch, a quick beer after work, or a celebratory dinner and drink, you'll feel right at home. Originally billed as a late-night watering hole, Reservoir began serving brunch and lunch a few years ago, and offer a unique and diverse menu. To drink, they offer their own microbrew beer, with many varieties to choose from, as well as cocktails and a selection of wines. Their brunch menu offers gourmet quality dishes at reasonable prices. Each selection offers a special, an unexpected touch, so it's definitely not your regular joint.

 +1 514 849 7779

 sitesweb.ca/search/Brasseries/Montreal, QC, Canada?r=s132

 info@brasseriesreservoir.ca

 9 rue Duluth Est, Montréal QC

 by SocialButterflyMMG

Helm Brasseur Gourmand

"Beer House"

Helm Brasseur Gourmand proves to be a great place to have a fun night with your group of buddies after a hard day at work. Mainly a brew pub, they have various cider and beer labels available on the tap and by the bottle at reasonable rates, with happy hours everyday from 5p to 7p. Dishes are also served, however the menu is limited but the beef tartar or salmon ceviche is really delicious and filling. The service is a bit slow and you may have to vie for the waitresses attention, but the atmosphere inside is cool and relaxed with a view of the street.

 +1 514 276 0473

 www.helmmicrobrasserie.ca/

 273 rue Bernard Ouest, Montréal QC

by SocialButterflyMMG

La Succursale Bar

"All About the Brew"

La Succursale Bar serves up a selection of seven craft beers that are brewed in house, alongside a few bottled varies, beer cocktails and a full bar selection of Canadian spirits. There's a little something for everyone at this lively watering hole where the love of beer reigns supreme. The bar does offer a food menu, however it is mainly composed of snacks and beer-friendly food, specifically designed to be an apt accompaniment to the beer list. For the beer curious and connoisseur alike, La Succursale Bar has much to offer.

+1 514 508 1615

lasuccursale.com/

info@lasuccursale.com

3188 rue Masson, Montréal QC

by SocialButterflyMMG

Brasserie Harricana

"All Good Things"

Brasserie Harricana has quickly made its place in the hearts of the city's gourmets since it first opened its doors in 2014. The decor is simple and chic, with a charming European vibe that brings to mind the quaint eateries of Paris. The menu boasts an impressive selection of craft beers, cider, bourbon and rum, served alongside gourmet comfort food that is nothing short of sublime. The beer selection is especially well-curated, with over 40 beers on tap and bottled craft beers to choose from. The all-you-can-eat lunch buffet is a revelation, while brunch at the Brasserie Harricana has come to be a cherished weekend ritual for many. Paired with genuine hospitality and attention to detail, a meal at this gastropub promises to be one you will not soon forget.

+1 514 303 3039

www.brasserieharricana.com/

info@brasserieharricana.com

95 rue Jean-Talon Ouest, Montréal QC

REJOIGNEZ-NOUS A:

cityseeker.com