Café Boulud

"The French Connection"

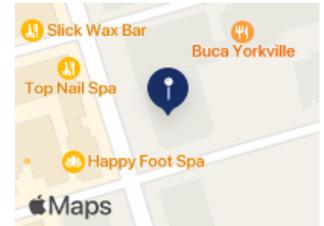

Nestled within the opulent Four Seasons Hotel Toronto, Café Boulud is certainly a renowned dining establishment. Under the guidance and supervision of chef Daniel Boulud, this cafe perfectly blends traditional French recipes with a contemporary twist. With rare reviews, accolades and of course the privileged Michelin star, it has made its mark in Toronto. Though the menu is basically inspired from the flavorful French cuisine, the influence of global culinary trends do reflect on its menu. And, if its French, there ought to be wines that are excellent and perfectly paired with the delicacies. If you want to make a good impression on your date or have an important business luncheon, Café Boulud perfectly serves the purpose.

La Palette

"Bon Appetit"

Care for some French flavor, while you are in Toronto? La Palette is your perfect destination. The classic look of this bistro with bright red interiors and black and white tiled floors is quite welcoming. Scrumptious Camembert fritters, delicious steak frites and the meaty fare are a good bet on any occasion. And not to forget the hard-to-resist chocolate cakes and luscious wines that would tempt even the most fussy diner. No wonder, this place has the major downtown crowd bustling in. Also brunch is served on weekends from 11am to 4pm.
