Seasons 52

"Cuisine to Excite the Palate"

Season 52 aspires to create delicious dishes using the freshest vegetables and seasonings along with moderation in oil to enhance the flavor of the food through wood-fire grilling and brick-oven cooking, as well as minimizing the caloric intake of its guests. Enjoy a fully satisfying meal that includes succulent salmon, fresh crab, grilled trout, roasted chicken and lamb, and specialty flatbreads. Meals sizes are appropriate, allowing enough room to try one of the restaurants mini-indulgence desserts, such as Belgian chocolate rock road or pecan pie with vanilla mousse. The full bar features refreshing cocktail selections including chocolate martinis to pineapple cosmopolitans.

Honey Pot

"Class and Style"

Honey Pot has got to be one of Tampa's classier and upscale nightclubs. With a brooding, sleek and stunning decor of deep reds and darker colors, get treated like a VIP here. If the ambiance is anything to go by, the drinks and the music are definitely better. Although a bit pricey, it's worth it the extra money you pay for a better nightlife experience.
