The Wedge Pizzeria

"Pizza With A Twist"

The Wedge is always serving up some of OKC's favorite and most creative pizzas. With the first wood oven in the city, the pizzas have always come out blistered and bubbling to perfection with a hint of pecan smoke. You can come to The Wedge for your traditional favorites like pepperoni or sausage, but they are particularly well-known for their more creative specialty pizzas like the Fig & Proscuitto or the especially popular "Truffle Shuffle" pizza with truffle oil, sage, Crimini mushrooms, roasted chicken and spinach. In addition to the pizzas, they also have a small selection of Italian appetizers, salads and daily changing flavors of gelato.

Flip's Wine Bar & Trattoria

"Trendy Italian Hot Spot"

This small neighborhood restaurant, located near upscale Nichols Hills, serves what it calls "rustic-style Italian food." Old-fashioned Italian meals mix comfortably with new dishes like the pasta chips, which are pieces of fried pasta (Flip's answer to the potato chip). A popular hang out for the locals, Flip's is a great place to experience Oklahoma City and specifically the Nichols Hills area. An average meal includes soup and salad, and the bar serves an extensive selection of beer, wine and liquor. They also showcase local artists, and feature a new artist every six weeks.

Papa Dio's

"Oklahoma City's Best Wine Bar"

This restaurant has two distinct areas within. The wine bar side has fine dining with white tablecloths, candlelight and a small, upscale menu. The other side of the restaurant is the family oriented dining room. You will find everything from pasta to pizza, and your traditional Italian fare. This wine bar has won awards several years in a row and has one of the most extensive wine lists in Oklahoma. The trademark meal is personal fried pizzas that are said to be a secret recipe that has been in the family for 600 years.
