Casablanca Cafe

"Where Morocco Meets the Tropics"

A lovely old house was preserved and reworked to become this cozy restaurant, so elegantly designed and prettily lighted that it's often featured in Fort Lauderdale's promotional pieces. The culinary fare offered at Casablanca Cafe is a contemporary take on American cuisine. What makes this restaurant so great is not just the mouthwatering food and drinks, but also the charming and cozy ambiance that it provides. Here, customers can indulge in candlelit dinners while admiring the views of the ocean lapping on the beach across the street. Overall, the restaurant's food and atmosphere showcase a beautiful blend of Moroccan and Mediterranean cultures with a tropical vibe.

Coconuts

"For Casual Waterfront Dining"

A true blue Floridian delight, Coconuts at Fort Lauderdale offers some of the best seafood in the city. Some of the tasty, fun and classy items on their menu include coconut shrimp, lobster rolls, clams, oysters and jambalaya. The restaurant also offers a delicious selection of cocktails and wines. One of the best highlights of this restaurant is its spectacular waterfront views. Customers can enjoy watching the yachts pass by while celebrating an event with a sip of wine on the romantic patio, or they can indulge in a fun-filled evening of drinks and snacks with their friends.

Rustic Inn

"For Garlic Crab Deliciousness"

Rustic Inn is a seafood restaurant located near the airport, and it boasts some of the freshest seafood in Fort Lauderdale. This restaurant has been welcoming seafood lovers since the 1950s. However, while delicious treats like fried fish, shrimp, mussels and more are on the menu, it's the garlic crab that keeps diners coming back for more. Some of its famous patrons include celebrities like Johnny Depp, Armand Assante and Dan Marino. There is also pasta, meat and salads to choose from, but at this beloved restaurant, seafood is king.
